Will Next Dividend Be Passed?

Uncertainty regarding the possible action of the directors on the common stock dividend of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company caused Williams, McConnell & Coleman to wire A. F. Hock-enbeamer, vice-president of the company, at San Francisco yesterday regarding the prospect. In answer to the telegram the following message was received from D. H. Foote, secretary of the company. "Your telegram of 18th to Mr. Hocken-beamer: latter at present out of town. It is not possible at this time to advise definitely as to the continuance of common stock dividend."

A rumor was current in Wall Street which could not be confirmed that an important meeting is to be held in New York to-day, at which will be present samuel Insull, of Chicago: F. G. Drum, A. F. Hockenbeamer and others prominent in gas and electric affairs. The purpose of this meeting was not hinted at in the stories circulated regarding it.

CONSOLIDATED EXCHANGE.

While prices for the leading stocks were generally well under the best figures at the close of the day, the market on the Consolidated Stock Exchange, as a whole, reflected improvement as a result of the five and a half hours of dealings. There was an early period of weakness, followed Bo by a vigorous upward swing under the lead of Union Pacific and Reading. Prices reacted in the afternoon, when news was received from Washington that the Cabinet had adjourned without reachmerger dissolution plan. Throughout the session great interest was taken by the trading element in the question as to whether the government would agree to the proposed exchange of the Union Pader of the ing a decision as to the latest Harriman quotations, they failed to get as low as the prices cabled from the London market before the opening here. Interborough preferred was a particularly active and strong stock, but its high was 584.
